Your Policy

About Your Insurance Policy

This Insurance Policy is made up of this Policy wording, the Statement of Fact and the Schedule which shows the sums insured, the Limits of Liability, the Premium the Policyholder will pay and any other terms which apply to the Policy.

The Policyholder should read the Statement of Fact, Schedule and the Policy wording together.

Some words in this Policy have a special meaning. They start with a capital letter whenever they appear in the Policy, and are listed under "Definitions" within each Section of Insurance.

The Insurance Contract

This Insurance Policy is a legal contract between the Policyholder and the Company. The Company's acceptance of this risk is based on the information presented to the Company prior to the commencement of the Policy, and at subsequent stages in respect of mid-term changes and renewal. Provided the on-line questions have been completed accurately and in good faith, and assumptions generated on the Statement of Fact checked, The Company will accept this as being a fair presentation of risk.

The Company will provide the insurance described in this Policy (subject to all the terms, conditions and exclusion of this Policy) for the Period of Insurance shown in the Schedule and any subsequent period for which the Policyholder shall pay and the Company shall agree to accept the Premium.

This Policy has been issued by Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance Ltd.

Claim Notification

Conditions that apply to this Policy in the event of a claim are set out in the Policy Conditions pages of this Policy. It is important that you comply with all Policy Conditions and you should familiarise yourself with their requirements.

Directions for claim notification are included in the Policy Conditions. Please remember that events that may give rise to a claim under this insurance must be notified as soon as reasonably possible although there are some situations where immediate notification is required.

The Policy Conditions require you to provide us with any reasonable assistance and evidence that we may require concerning the cause and value of any claim. Ideally, as part of your initial claim notification, you should provide:

- Your name, address, and your email and contact numbers
- Personal details necessary to confirm your identity
- Policy number
- The date of the incident
- The cause of the loss or damage
- Details of the loss or damage together with claim value if known or in respect of injury the nature and extent
- The crime reference number where applicable
- Names and addresses of any other parties involved or responsible for the incident (including details of injuries) and addresses of any witnesses

This information will enable us to make an initial evaluation on policy liability and claim value. We may, however, request additional information depending upon circumstances and value which may include the following:

- Original purchase receipts, invoices, instruction booklets or photographs
- Purchase dates and location of lost or damaged property
- For damaged property, confirmation from a suitably qualified expert that the item you are claiming for is beyond repair

Sometimes we or someone acting on our behalf, may wish to meet with you to discuss the circumstances of the claim, to inspect the damage or to undertake further investigations.

We take pride in the claims service we offer to our customers. Our philosophy is to repair or replace lost or damaged property, where we consider it appropriate, and we have developed a network of contractors, repairers and product suppliers dedicated to providing claim solutions.

Where we can offer repair or replacement through a preferred supplier but we agree to pay a cash settlement, then payment will normally not exceed the amount we would have paid our preferred supplier.

- A) the Business is wound up or carried on by a liquidator or receiver or permanently discontinued

What the Company expects of the Policyholder

The Policyholder shall give written notice to the Company as soon as reasonably practicable of the forfeiture, suspension or withdrawal of any Premises Licence or of any Event likely to prejudice the Premises Licence coming to the Policyholder's knowledge stating (as far as is practicable) the grounds on which any order was made or the particulars of such Event.

In connection with any claims against the Policyholder, the Company may at any time pay to the Policyholder the Limit of Indemnity or any lesser amount for which such claims can be settled and after that the Company shall relinquish the control of such claims and be under no further liability in connection with them except for costs and expenses for which We may be responsible in respect of matters prior to the date of such payment.

Conditions

THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS SPECIFICALLY APPLY IN RESPECT OF LEGAL EXPENSES INSURANCE

Record Keeping

The Policyholder must take all reasonable care in keeping business books, records and accounts. Tax returns are to be submitted without undue delay and accounts and related taxation computations are to be submitted to the proper government department within the statutory period laid down at the end of the relevant period of account.

Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the Company not paying the Policyholder's Legal Expenses claim.

Claims Settlement Conditions

The following claims conditions are specific to Legal Expenses Insurance:

1 Consent

Our consent to pay Legal Expenses must be obtained in writing. Legal expenses incurred before such consent is given will not be covered. Any consent given will remain effective whilst the Policyholder can satisfy Us that:

- A) there are reasonable prospects of successfully pursuing or defending the Legal Proceedings,
- and
- B) it is reasonable in all the specific circumstances of the case for Legal Expenses to be provided.

In circumstances where We have chosen a representative to act on the Policyholder's behalf We will pay Legal Expenses incurred for providing the initial assessment of the claim irrespective of the prospects of success or whether the claim is covered under this Policy.

Where the Policyholder has chosen their own representative any Legal Expenses incurred in providing initial assessment shall only be covered where there are reasonable prospects of successfully pursuing or defending the Legal Proceedings and the claim is covered under all other terms and conditions of the Policy.

The decision to grant consent will take into account the advice of the Policyholder's Legal Representative as well as that of Our own advisers. We may require, at the Policyholder's expense, an opinion of counsel on the merits of the Legal Proceedings. If the claim is subsequently admitted the Policyholder's costs in obtaining such an opinion and providing such advice will be covered under this insurance.

If the Policyholder decides to commence or continue Legal Proceedings for which We have denied support under Claims Settlement Condition 1A) and is successful, We will pay Legal Expenses as if We had given Our consent in the first instance.

2 Minimising Claims or Legal Proceedings

The Policyholder must take all reasonable measures to minimise the risk or likelihood of claims, and the cost of Legal Proceedings.

Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the Company not paying the Policyholder's Legal Expenses claim.

3 Arbitration

Any dispute between the Policyholder and Us or the Company in respect of this section of the Policy may be referred to a single arbitrator who shall be either a solicitor or barrister agreed upon by both parties. Failing agreement, the arbitrator shall be nominated by the President of the appropriate Law Society, Bar Council or professional body within the Territorial Limits.

The party against whom the decision is made shall meet the costs of the arbitration in full. If the decision is not clearly made against either party the arbitrator shall have the power to apportion costs. If the decision is made in favour of Us or the Company, the Policyholder's costs shall not be recoverable under this Policy.

4 Insolvency of Policyholder

If the Policyholder is insolvent when a claim is notified to Us or becomes insolvent during the course of any Legal Proceedings, to which the Company has given support, the Company has the right to refuse to admit a claim or immediately to withdraw its support from a claim. The Policyholder shall be deemed insolvent upon the appointment of an office-holder within the meaning given by section 233 (1) or 372 (1) of the Insolvency Act 1986.

5 Notification of Claims

It is a requirement of the Company's liability that We must be notified in writing immediately the Policyholder is aware of any actual or alleged act, omission or dispute which has given or may give rise to any Legal Proceedings involving the Policyholder. If the Policyholder fails to notify Us of any actual or alleged act, omission or dispute during the Period of Insurance any claim arising from such actual or alleged act, omission or dispute will not be admitted.

Where such notification has been given, the Company agrees to treat any subsequent Legal Proceedings in respect of the circumstances notified as though the Legal Proceedings had been made or brought during the Period of Insurance.

Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the Company not paying the Policyholder's Legal Expenses claim.

Special Procedure

If a form ET1 (Originating Application) is received from an employment tribunal the Policyholder must immediately forward it to Us with form ET3 (Notice of Appearance by Respondent) which should be left blank.

In view of the 21 days' statutory time limit this must be done immediately.

Failure to comply with this Special Procedure will result in the Company not paying the Policyholder's Legal Expenses claim.

6 Appeal Procedure

Our consent must be obtained if the Policyholder wishes to appeal against the judgment of a court. A written application must be submitted to Us at least 10 working days before the final date for lodging the appeal. The application must state the reasons for bringing the appeal. We will inform the Policyholder of Our decision.

The Policyholder must co-operate in an appeal against the judgment of a court at Our request.

7 Conduct of Legal Proceedings

A) Nomination of the Legal Representative

- i) In respect of any and all claims where the Company may be liable to pay an award of compensation, We have the right to choose the Legal Representative.

- ii) In respect of all other claims covered by the Policy:

Where court papers have been issued (or received), or where there is a conflict of interest, the Policyholder is free to choose a suitably qualified Legal Representative.

Where the Policyholder has selected a Legal Representative of the Policyholder's own choice, We will only pay Legal Expenses up to the limit specified by the Standard Legal Expenses. Any Legal Expenses in excess of the Standard Legal Expenses will be the responsibility of the Policyholder.

In selecting the Legal Representative the Policyholder shall have a duty to minimise the cost of Legal Proceedings.

We may choose not to accept a representative chosen by the Policyholder. If this occurs We will explain why. If there is a disagreement over the choice of representative in these circumstances, the Policyholder may choose another suitably qualified person and submit the name of that person to Us for consideration. If We cannot agree on a representative or whether Legal Proceedings are necessary the Policyholder can take the matter to an independent arbitrator. The arbitration process is set out in Claims Settlement Condition 3.

In all circumstances except those described in 7a)ii) above, We shall choose a representative to act on the Policyholder's behalf.

If the Policyholder's choice of representative has to undertake work to familiarise themselves with the work already undertaken on the case, We will not pay for this work to be done. We will not pay the Policyholder's choice of representative more than We would pay Our own choice of representative.

- iii) In the period before We agree that Legal Proceedings are necessary We reserve the right to seek to obtain a settlement on the Policyholder's behalf. The settlement will be subject to the Policyholder's agreement, which the Policyholder will not unreasonably refuse.

Any representative is appointed in the Policyholder's name to act for the Policyholder.

B) All information to be given to the Legal Representative

The Legal Representative must be given all information and assistance required. This must include a complete and truthful account of the facts of the case and all relevant documentary or other evidence in the Policyholder's possession. The Policyholder must obtain or execute all documents as may be necessary and attend any meetings or conferences when requested. The Policyholder owes the same obligations to Us as to the Legal Representative.

C) Access to the Legal Representative

We are entitled to obtain from the Policyholder's Legal Representative any information, document, or advice relating to a claim under this insurance, whether or not privileged. On request the Policyholder will give any instructions necessary to ensure such access.

D) Instruction of counsel or appointment of expert witnesses

If the Legal Representative wishes to instruct counsel or appoint expert witnesses We will not unreasonably withhold Our consent. The names of counsel or the expert witnesses must be submitted to Us together with an explanation of the necessity for such action.

E) Our right to pay the Policyholder instead of indemnifying Legal Expenses

We may elect to pay the Policyholder a reasonable sum not exceeding the realistic estimated value of any claim instead of indemnifying any Legal Expenses. Such a decision will be entirely at Our discretion and will be in full and final settlement of the Policyholder's claim.

F) Offer of settlement

The Policyholder must inform Us in writing as soon as an offer to settle Legal Proceedings is received or a payment into court is made. The Policyholder will not unreasonably withhold consent to the Legal Representative making an offer to settle the Legal Proceedings.

The Policyholder must not enter or offer to enter into any agreement to settle without Our prior written consent. Any such agreement must take into account the Company's interest in the recovery of costs.

If the Policyholder unreasonably withholds agreement to a settlement We reserve the right to withdraw Our support.

G) Withdrawal by the Policyholder

Where the Company has provided an indemnity for Legal Expenses and the Policyholder withdraws from the Legal Proceedings without Our agreement, the Company shall be entitled to reimbursement for all Legal Expenses paid.

H) Payment of Legal Expenses

All bills relating to any Legal Proceedings which the Policyholder receives from the Legal Representative should be forwarded to Us without delay.

Bills must be certified by the Policyholder to the effect that the charges have been properly incurred and that We are authorised to settle on the Policyholder's behalf. Gross sum bills must be accompanied by a breakdown setting out the work done and rates applied.

If requested the Policyholder must ask the Legal Representative to submit the bill of costs for assessment or audit.

The provision of indemnity for any Legal Expenses does not imply that all Legal Expenses will be paid. If the Policyholder is in doubt We should be consulted.

The Policyholder must not, without Our written consent, enter into any agreement with the Legal Representative as to the payment of Legal Expenses.

I) Recovery of costs and expenses

The Policyholder through the Legal Representative shall be responsible for the repayment to the Company of any:

- i) award of costs in favour of the Policyholder,
- or
- ii) costs agreed to be paid to the Policyholder as part of any settlement.

When the total amount of Legal Expenses incurred is within the Limit of Indemnity, the Policyholder and the Company will share any Legal Expenses that are recovered according to the proportion paid.

Where the total cost of the legal action exceeds the Limit of Indemnity, the Policyholder and the Company shall have priority over any other parties with an interest in any costs recovery. The Policyholder and Company shall share such recovery according to the proportion paid, subject to the Company's right of recovery being restricted to the Limit of Indemnity

OUR COMMITMENT TO CUSTOMER SERVICE

At RSA we are committed to going the extra mile for our customers. If you believe that we have not delivered the service you expected, we want to hear from you so that we can try to put things right.

Our promise to you

We will:

- Acknowledge all complaints promptly
- Investigate quickly and thoroughly
- Keep you informed of progress
- Do everything possible to resolve your complaint
- Ensure you are clear on how to escalate your complaint, if necessary

Once we have reviewed your complaint we will issue our final decision in writing within 8 weeks of the date we received your complaint.

Step 1

If your complaint relates to your policy then please contact the sales and service team in the office which issued the Policy or your Broker. If your complaint relates to a claim then please call the claims helpline number shown in your policy booklet.

We aim to resolve your concerns on an informal basis, within three business days. Where we have been able to, we will send you a letter confirming this. We'll also explain how you may be able to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service if you subsequently decide that you are unhappy with the outcome.

Step 2

In the unlikely event that we are unable to resolve your concerns through our informal complaints process, our Customer Relations Team will then review the matter on behalf of our Chief Executive. Once our Customer Relations Team have reviewed your complaint they will send you a final decision in writing within 8 weeks of the date we received your complaint.

Our Customer Relations Team's contact details are as follows:

Post: RSA Customer Relations Team

Email: crt.halifax@uk.rsagroup.com

If you are still not happy

If you are still unhappy after our Customer Relations Team's review, or you have not received a written offer of resolution within 8 weeks of the date we received your complaint, you may be eligible to refer your case to the Financial Ombudsman Service. The Financial Ombudsman Service is an independent body that arbitrates on complaints. They can be contacted at:

Email: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

Website: www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk

You have six months from the date of our final response to refer your complaints to the Financial Ombudsman Service. This does not affect your right to take legal action, however, the Financial Ombudsman Service will not adjudicate on any case where litigation has commenced.

How we use your information

Please read the following carefully as it contains important information relating to the details that you have given us. You should show this notice to any other party related to this insurance.

Your privacy is important to us and we are committed to keeping it protected. We have created this Customer Privacy Notice which will explain how we use the information we collect about you and how you can exercise your data protection rights. This Privacy Notice will help you understand the following:

Who are we?

We are Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance Ltd (RSA), a member of the RSA Group of companies. We provide commercial and consumer insurance products and services under a number of brands.

Why do we collect and use your personal information?

As an insurer, we need your personal information to understand the level of insurance cover you require. We'll use this information (e.g. your name, address, telephone number and email address) to communicate with you and if you have agreed.

We need to use your information to create a quote for you, allowing you to buy insurance products from us. When buying a product from us, you'll also need to provide us with details about the items you wish to be covered by the insurance.

We may need to check your information with external companies/ organisations (e.g. the DVLA, the Motor Insurance Database, credit reference agencies and criminal conviction checks.) When buying certain products, sometimes we will ask for special categories of personal data (e.g. driving offences for motor insurance, medical records in case of injury).

Once you become a customer, we'll need to take your payment details to set up your cover. This could be direct debit, credit or debit card information.

If you need to claim against your insurance policy, we will need to collect information about the incident and this may be shared with other selected companies to help process the claim. If other people are involved in the incident, we may also need to collect additional information about them which can include special categories of personal data (e.g. injury and health data).

In submitting an application, we may be provided with equivalent or substantially similar information relating to other proposed beneficiaries under the policy. You agree that you will bring this Privacy Notice to the attention of each beneficiary at the earliest possible opportunity.

Data protection laws require us to meet certain conditions before we are allowed to use your personal information in the manner described in this Privacy Notice. To use your personal information, we will rely on one or more of the following grounds:

- Performance of contract: We need to use your personal information in order to provide you with the policy (which is a contract of insurance between you and us), and perform our obligations under it (such as making payments to you in respect of a claim made under the policy).

- Consent: In certain circumstances, we may need your consent unless authorised by law in order to use personal information about you which is classed as "special categories of personal data".
- Necessity to establish, exercise or defend legal claim: If you, or we, bring a legal claim (e.g. a court action) against the other, we may use your information in either establishing our position, or defending ourselves in relation to that legal claim.
- Compliance with a legal obligation: Where laws or regulations may require us to use your personal information in certain ways.
- Legitimate Interests: We will also process your personal information where this processing is in our "legitimate interests". When relying on this condition, we are required to carry out a balancing test of our interests in using your personal information (for example, carrying out analytical research), against the interests you have as a citizen and the rights you have under data protection laws. The outcome of this balancing test will determine whether we can use your personal information in the ways described in this Privacy Notice. We will always act reasonably and give full and proper consideration to your interests in carrying out this balancing test.

Where else do we collect information about you?

We will receive details about you from other people or companies. For example:

- Given to us by someone who applied for an insurance product on your behalf (e.g. an insurance broker) where you have given them the permission to do so; or
- Lawfully collected from other sources (e.g. Motor Insurance Database, Claims and Underwriting Exchange or fraud prevention databases) to validate the information you have provided to us.

We request those third parties to comply with data protection laws and to be transparent about any such disclosures. If you would like some further information, please contact us.

Will we share your personal information with anyone else?

We do not disclose your information outside of the RSA Group except:

- Where we need to check the information provided to us before we can offer you an insurance product (e.g. reference agencies);
- Where we are required or permitted to do so by law or relevant regulatory authority (e.g. financial crime screening, fraud detection/prevention);
- Where we provide insurance services in partnership with other companies;
- In the event that we are bought or we sell any business or assets, in which case we will disclose your personal information to the prospective buyer of such business or assets;
- As required to enforce or apply this Privacy Notice, or the contract of insurance itself;
- Within our group for administrative purposes;

- As required in order to give effect to contractual arrangements we have in place with any insurance broker and/or intermediary through which you have arranged this policy;
- With healthcare providers in the context of any relevant claim being made against your policy;
- If we appoint a third party to process and settle claims under the policy on our behalf, in which case we will make your personal information available to them for the purposes of processing and settling such claims;
- With our third party service providers (including hosting/storage providers, research agencies, technology suppliers etc.);
- With our reinsurers (and brokers of reinsurers) in connection with the normal operation of our business;

Sometimes your personal information may be sent to other parties outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) in connection with the purposes set out above. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Notice, and in doing so may rely on certain “transfer mechanisms” such as the EU-US Privacy Shield, and the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission. If you would like further information please contact us.

Which decisions made about you will be automated?

Before we can offer you an insurance product or service, we may need to conduct the following activities, which involve automated (computer based) decision-making:

- Pricing and Underwriting – this process calculates the insurance risks based on the information that you have supplied. This will be used to calculate the Premium you will have to pay.
- Credit Referencing – using the information given, calculations are performed to evaluate your credit rating. This rating will help us to evaluate your ability to pay for the quoted products and services.
- Automated Claims – some small claims may qualify for automated processing, which will check the information you provide, resulting in a settlement or rejection of your claim.

The results of these automated decision-making processes may limit the products and services we can offer you. If you do not agree with the result, you have the right to request that we perform a manual reassessment using the same information that you originally provided. If you wish to do so please contact us.

For how long will we keep your information?

Your personal information will be retained under one or more of the following criteria:

- Where the personal information is used to provide you with the correct insurance cover, which will be kept as long as it is required to fulfil the conditions of the insurance contract.
- Where the use of your personal information for a specific purpose is based on your consent, it will be kept for as long as we continue to have your consent.

- Where, for a limited period of time, we are using some of your information to improve the products or services we provide.
- For as long as your information is required to allow us to conduct fraud and/or criminal checks and investigations.

Your information is incorrect what should you do?

If you hold a product or service with us and think that the information we hold about you is incorrect or incomplete, please contact us and we will be happy to update it for you.

What are your rights over the information that is held by RSA?

We understand that your personal information is important to you, therefore you may request the following from us to:

- 1 Provide you with details about the personal information we hold about you, as well as a copy of the information itself in a commonly used format. [Request Ref: DSR 1]
- 2 Request your personal information be deleted where you believe it is no longer required. Please note however, we may not be able to comply with this request in full where, for example, you are still insured with us and the information is required to fulfil the conditions of the insurance contract. [Request Ref: DSR 2]
- 3 Request the electronic version of the personal information you have supplied to us, so it can be provided to another company. We would provide the information in a commonly used electronic format. [Request Ref: DSR 3]
- 4 Request to restrict the use of your information by us, under the following circumstances [Request Ref: DSR 4]:
 - A) If you believe that the information we hold about you is inaccurate, or;
 - B) If you believe that our processing activities are unlawful and you do not want your information to be deleted.
 - C) Where we no longer need to use your information for the purposes set out in this Privacy Notice, but it is required for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim.
 - D) Where you have made an objection to us (in accordance with section 5 below), pending the outcome of any assessment we make regarding your objection.
- 5 Object to the processing of your data under the following circumstances [Request Ref: DSR 5]:
 - A) Where we believe it is in the public interest to use your information in a particular way, but you disagree.
 - B) Where we have told you we are using your data for our legitimate business interests and you believe we shouldn't be (e.g. you were in the background of a promotional video but you did not agree to be in it.)

In each case under section 5 above, we will stop using your information unless we can reasonably demonstrate legitimate grounds for continuing to use it in the manner you are objecting to.

If you would like to request any of the above, please contact us and submit a written request, including the request reference (e.g. DSR 1), as this will speed up your request. To ensure that we do not disclose your personal information to someone who is not entitled to it, when you are making the request we may ask you to provide us with:

- Your name;
- Address(es);
- Date of birth;
- Any policy IDs or reference numbers that you have along with a copy of your photo identification.

All requests are free of charge, although for requests for the provision of personal information we hold about you (DSR1) we reserve the right to charge a reasonable administrative fee where, we believe an excessive number of requests are being made. Wherever possible, we will respond within one month from receipt of the request, but if we don't, we will notify you of anticipated timelines ahead of the one month deadline.

Please note that simply submitting a request doesn't necessarily mean we will be able to fulfil it in full on every occasion – we are sometimes bound by law which can prevent us fulfilling some requests in their entirety, but when this is the case we will explain this to you in our response.
